

2010 INACOL Online Learning Innovator Awards Nomination Form Due October, 2010
OUTSTANDING INDIVIDUAL CONTRIBUTION TO K-12 ONLINE LEARNING

AWARD DESCRIPTION:

The Outstanding Contribution to K-12 Online Learning award is made to an individual whose insight and innovation has significantly increased the credibility of online learning in general and the effectiveness of an approach or series of particular approaches to distance education in particular.

The award should address a body of work, rather than an isolated breakthrough. The body of work should highlight significant involvement in the field of online learning, prior educational or research experience and a variety of contributions to the field of online learning. The individual is recognized as a leader in the field and has contributed significantly through their involvement.

The award is a tribute to contributions of an individual to the advancement of online learning.
