iNACOL to Host Special Webinar: NCAA High School Review: Update on Online Courses

VIENNA, VA, June 3, 2010 – The International Association for K-12 Online Learning (iNACOL) will be hosting a Special Edition webinar on “NCAA High School Review: Update on Online Courses” to provide an update for the online learning community on recent legislation for student and faculty interaction.

The NCAA approves hundreds of high-quality online high school courses every year through the NCAA High School Eligibility Center. In this webinar, the NCAA will provide a background on the issues and cover standards, policies and procedures for reviews. There will be an opportunity for questions and discussion at the end of the presentation.

Presenters from NCAA include Nick Sproul, Assistant Director of High School Review; Mark Hicks, Associate Director of High School Review; and Lisa Mills, Director of High School Review.

According to Susan Patrick, President and CEO of iNACOL, “iNACOL works to address important, timely issues in online learning. To this end, we are pleased to work with the NCAA in addressing a variety of questions that online learning programs have and provide a webinar as a forum for a discussion.”

This webinar will be held Monday, June 7th, from 4:00 - 5:00 PM (Eastern) via Elluminate.

Please register online: <http://www.inacol.org/events/>. This webinar is free for iNACOL members & $79 for non-members.

Press may attend free of charge by contacting iNACOL’s Associate Director of Communications Wendy Fleming (wffleming@inacol.org).
