iNACOL Virtual School Symposium 2010 Registration and RFP Now Open

VIENNA, VA, March 18, 2010 – The International Association for K-12 Online Learning (iNACOL) is seeking presenters for sessions at the Virtual School Symposium (VSS) and the Request for Presentation Proposals (RFP) is now available on the website. The theme of VSS 2010 is: "Online and Blended Learning: The Future of Education." To access and submit the RFP, please visit: <http://rfp.virtualschoolsymposium.org>.

According to Susan Patrick, President & CEO of iNACOL, "Education leaders seeking new, cost-effective solutions through online and hybrid learning should attend the Virtual School Symposium."

The conference is the industry's leading event for K-12 online learning and brings together 1,500 education leaders. The VSS conference will be on November 14 – 16, 2010 in Glendale, Arizona and provides important networking opportunities, access to expertise and analysis, trends, research and thought-provoking sessions for leaders looking to help shape the future of education.

The deadline for submitting presentation proposals is April 18, 2010. The new RFP process is entirely web-based. The VSS Program Committee will notify applicants on proposal status/acceptance by June 30, 2010.

Registration for the conference is also now open and you can take advantage of "early bird" discounted pricing for a limited time, so act now! Register at: <http://www.virtualschoolsymposium.org/registration.php>.
